

HISTORICAL FACT SHEET Telephone Industry Related Companies

COMPANY Deckart & Homolka

DATE ORGANIZED 1872

WHERE ORGANIZED Vienna, Austria

FOUNDER(S) William Deckart, Eduard Homolka

NATURE OF BUSINESS Manufacturer

Subsequent names or significant changes resulting from acquisitions, consolidation, sales or bankruptcies:

Licensed by L.M. Ericsson

DATE

1908

Merged with L.M. Ericsson to form Ericsson Österreichische

Elektrizitäts-AG

1911

REMARKS Founded within the Austrian-Hungarian empire, the company had offices in Vienna, Budapest, Prague, Paris and Brunn, Austria. The company had a relationship with L.M. Ericsson and used many of its parts on their phones. They obtained a license from Ericsson in 1908. Ericsson wanted to establish a foothold in the region and merged with Deckart & Homolka

Source: www.ts.iv; www.ericsson.com