In presenting our systems to the public, we need only state that they are perfect in every respect, and every instrument and installation is fully guaranteed.

Our instruments are the result of years of experiment on the part of our engineering experts, who have been in the telephone business since 1876.

In our catalog, which will be sent on application, we give a full description of our instruments and systems. We also manufacture a complete line of telephone parts, accessories and switchboards, and are prepared to thoroughly equip telephone exchanges in every detail, and we guarantee our work.

"Our 'Phones are Made Right and they Stay Right."

"STYLE 11" INTERCOMMUNICATING WALL TELEPHONE

Our Inter - Communicating Telephone Systems are Absolutely Non-Interfering.

They COST no more than the ordinary Inter-Communicating Telephone Systems and much less than the so-called Automatic Systems. Think this over carefully before purchasing. For full information write us.
