

HISTORICAL FACT SHEET Telephone Industry Related Companies

COMPANY Phoenix Telephone & Manufacturing Co.

DATE ORGANIZED 1895

WHERE ORGANIZED Chicago, IL

FOUNDER(S) Lee R. Brown, E. E. Yaxley

NATURE OF BUSINESS Manufacturer

Subsequent names or significant changes resulting from acquisitions, consolidation, sales or bankruptcies:

Factory burned

DATE
1897

Reorganized and sold to the Victor Telephone Mfg Co

1898

Acquired by P.C.Burns and merged into American Electric Co.

1909

REMARKS _____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Source: Electrical World., 1898; Electricity, 1899

The "Phoenix."

THE PHOENIX TELEPHONE & MANUFACTURING CO.,
40-42 W. Quincy St., CHICAGO, ILL.,

Are now filling all orders direct from the factory, and with their large facilities for manufacturing are in a position to quote low figures on complete exchange outfits.

After the severest practical test in a large number of exchanges the "PHOENIX" has been unanimously declared to be far superior to all others.

Remember that we manufacture everything required for the complete installation of exchanges of any size.

Our new catalogue is now ready.

Ernest Yaxley, Pres